General Data Protection Regulation;

an update on requirements and compliance

The General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) will significantly impact organisations approach to data privacy compliance.

You should start preparing now to make sure you are compliant when the GDPR comes into effect in May 2018. In this session you will be looking at:

- GDPR and what has changed
- Direct marketing and what we mean by consent
- Reviewing your privacy notices and being compliant
- Preparation for GDPR in audits/action points
- Update on fundraising practice – including regulator, fundraising preference service and codes of practice.
